

ADDITIONAL FAQ IN RESPECT OF THE PM-KISAM SCHEME (13.2.2019)

1. There is no distinction between urban and rural cultivable land and under the scheme. Both are covered under the scheme, provided that land situated in urban areas is under actual cultivation.
2. Micro land holdings, which are not cultivable, are excluded from the benefit under the scheme.
3. State Government to decide about the mechanism / authority for validation if information / declaration furnished by the beneficiary.
4. The cut-off date for `minor` children becoming `major` is 1.2.2019.
5. Agricultural land being used for non-agricultural purpose will not be covered for benefit under the scheme.